HKAI A Seminar

"Changing Landscape of Airworthiness Requirements"

8th March 2011

AsiaWorld-Expo, Hong Kong

One of the celebratory events for the 100th Anniversary of Powered Flight in Hong Kong, is a seminar on <<Changing Landscape of Airworthiness Requirements>>. Organized by the Hong Kong Aviation Industry Association and co-organized by Civil Aviation Department, China Aircraft Services Limited, Federal Aviation Administration and the Hong Kong Productivity Council, this seminar will take place on 8th March 2011; the first day of Asian Aerospace International Expo & Congress 2011.

Through this seminar, HKAI A provides a platform for industry players to be up to date with knowledge on the latest global changes in airworthiness requirements and thinking, and seize opportunities in the global, as well as China's rapidly expanding aviation market.
